

AN AIRPLANE RIDE

"Steve, come in here. I have some big news for [you/ know/ was]," said Ma. "Your grandma called from Miami. [So/ She/ In] wanted you to come and visit [car/ her/ went]. She wants you to fly down [there/ jeep/ mark]. She will help me pay for [color/ she/ your] plane ticket."

"Wow! I get to [for/ go/ us] visit Grandma! And you said that I [will/ kid/ log] fly on an airplane! I cannot [cart/ you/ wait] to see her. When does she [money/ that/ want] me to come?" asked Steve.

"She [apple/ would/ beans] like for you to come as [talk/ soon/ pet] as you can. I told her [it/ see/ sat] would take me at least a [gone/ true/ week] to get ready. I will plan [be/ hat/ to] send you next Sunday. I will [sat/ get/ you] an afternoon flight. That way you [near/ can/ home] still go to church."

Steve was [in/ low/ so] happy. He liked to see Grandma. [So/ Here/ She] was fun. She took Steve to [neat/ said/ wad] places. Steve had never been to Miami. [Put/ Was/ He] had never ridden on a plane. [To/ He/ Big] could not wait for Sunday to [just/ come/ were].

He packed his clothes. He put [in/ jar/ we] new swim trucks. Ma said that Grandma [lived/ smile/ after] near a beach. The beach was [bet/ on/ go] the ocean. Ma said there would [lip/ be/ row] big waves. Steve was glad. He [there/ uses/ liked] to swim.

Ma took Steve to [hop/ low/ the] airport. Steve saw many people. There

[for/ were/ pest] so many planes! "What if I [get/ sing/ free] on the wrong plane? I am [scared/ never/ greens]," he said to Ma. Ma laughed. "[Has/ Do/ Wet] not worry," she said. "I will [make/ slam/ play] sure you get on the right [paper/ plane/ frees]. Besides, the stewardess will stay with [met/ toy/ you]."

Steve climbed on the plane. There [not/ you/ were] rows of blue seats. They looked [like/ into/ how] seats in a movie theater. A [lady/ toy/ went] showed him where to sit. Steve [love/ sat/ we] down. He was by the window. Steve [cleans/ looked/ knows] out. He was high off the [ground/ player/ there]. Soon a light came on. It [near/ pen/ was] to fasten his seat belt. The [rays/ dogs/ plane] started its engines. It started to [when/ move/ thin] down the runway. It was going [faster/ misses/ known] and faster. Then Steve felt it [tape/ done/ lift] off of the ground. They were [me/ up/ saw] in the air! Steve looked down. [So/ Pull/ The] houses looked like play houses. The [never/ climb/ people] on the ground looked like little [ants/ for/ into]. Steve laughed. The plane climbed higher [jar/ and/ we] higher. Soon they went up into [said/ girl/ the] clouds. Steve looked down now. He [me/ saw/ can] not ground, but clouds. They stayed [apple/ been/ there] for an hour or two. Soon [cart/ us/ the] plane began to go down. It [would/ game/ fires] land soon. Steve loved riding on [the/ was/ you] plane. He hoped the rest of [pin/ hot/ his] visit with Grandma would be as exciting.
