

THE SWIMMING POOL

Pam and Kelly were out of school. It was summer, time to play. [Him/ Put/ The] girls were neighbors. They played together [makes/ lift/ every] day.

The summer was hot. Pam [and/ if/ one] Kelly liked to play outside. Pam [say/ hot/ had] a swing set. Both girls liked [cot/ be/ to] swing. They went back and forth. [It/ On/ A] seemed to be cooler that way. [For/ And/ See] lunch, they made sandwiches. Then they [cone/ went/ face] out to swing again. Pam and Kelly [goes/ did/ we] this each day.

One day Dad [know/ three/ came] out to the yard. "Pam, come [here/ note/ blue]. I want to tell you something. [To/ I/ At] will buy you a pool," said Dad. Pam [you/ he/ and] Kelly clapped their hands. They jumped up [and/ drip/ big] down. They were going to get a [very/ grown/ pool]! Then they went to the store. [There/ Phone/ Time] were many pools. Some were blue. [Some/ Mane/ With] were yellow. Some had ducks. Some [friend/ pools/ call] had fish. Then Pam saw a [hair/ pink/ ran] pool. "I want that pool," she [cans/ bean/ said]. "I want a pink pool, please."

[Rice/ Chase/ Fine]," said Dad. "I like it, too. [On/ I/ Do] will buy you the pink pool." Dad [just/ paid/ vest] the cashier. Pam and Kelly said [thank/ would/ plops] you to Dad. Then they went [baby/ home/ radio]. They set up the pool. It [mean/ was/ in] plastic. Dad put it under a [clap/cost/ tree]. The water would be cooler that how/ way/ the].

Kelly went home. She put on too/ her/ car bathing suit. Then she came back to/ pit/ in swim. Pam put on her suit, him/ law/ too. She put on her pink one. Put/ It/ New matched the pool.

Then they turned rid/ on/ and the hose. They filled the pool buck/ hall/ with water. Then they jumped into the award/ pool/ late. The water was cold! They splashed sits/ down/ each other and kicked the water. Dad should/ threw/ chop them a ball. They played games am/ sew/ in the pool.

"Thank you again, Dad," said/ fly/ me Pam. "We love the pool. It on/ is/ use a great way to stay cool are/ in/ we the summer!"

The girls played in sing/ name/ the pool every day. Soon they forgot the/ mate/ nest swing set. They filled the pool lit/ pal/ up in the morning. They splashed the water/ cook/ jump out all day. They got toys show/ from/ chip the house. They got more balls. Come/ They/ Plow got floating toys. It was the hats/ down/ best pool ever!
