

CHARLIE FINDS SOME MONEY

Charlie and Tad went to the park. It was down the street from [just/ went/ where] they lived. The park was big [with/ nose/ grip] a lot of swings. It was [or/ in/ the] the center of town. Many office buildings [home/ were/ tot] around it. People liked to eat [ones/ into/ their] lunch there in warm weather.

Charlie [and/ hop/ rat] Tad rode their bikes. They parked [girl/ come/ them] under a tree. No one would [tells/ table/ bother] them there. Then they went to [did/ the/ say] see-saw. They went up and [down/ just/ vest], up and down. Each boy tried [I/ mop/ to] push off higher than the other. [Then/ Bath/ Into] the boys went to the fountain. [They/ Open/ Leg] liked to splash water on each [clean/ goes/ other]. Charlie sat on the edge. He [doctor/ almost/ needs] fell in! Then he saw something. [It/ Met/ Ear] was in the fountain. He reached [kids/ into/ bet] the water. He pulled out a [tell/ was/ bag]. It was made of plastic. Charlie [opened/ little/ there] the bag. Inside the bag was [boys/ over/ some] money. Charlie and his friend looked [lot/ you/ at] it. It was a one hundred [dollar/ coats/ chair] bill! "Oh, boy! Oh, boy!" cried the [top/ boys/ hair].

They raced home. They showed the [money/ white/ baby] to their parents. Their parents called [you/ the/ nut] police. Maybe the money was stolen, thought Charlie. [Outs/ That/ Did] would be exciting. The police took the [money/ after/ open]. They said they would call if someone claimed [mop/ put/ it].

After four weeks, no one claimed [week/ the/ tap] money. The police called. They said [told/ the/ how] money was Charlie's. Charlie jumped up [the/ bee/ and] down. He called Tad. "I will [girl/ down/ give] you half of the money," said Charlie. "[Great/ Till/ Fish!]" said Tad. "Thanks a lot!" Charlie [did/ yes/ went] to sleep that night. He wondered [tan/ how/ pat] he would spend the money. Maybe [he/ can/ jar] would buy a new bike. Maybe [cap/ pet/ he] would go to the movies ten [swing/ boot/ times]. He could buy popcorn for his [whole/ glass/ went] class. Then Charlie had an idea. [At/ Can/ He] would save the money. He was [going/ thanks/ sorry] camping that summer. He could take [go/ the/ us] money with him. He could buy postcards [me/ or/ hat] neat things in the mountains.
