

THE BASEBALL GAME

Tim was a big baseball fan. He watched baseball games on T.V. [Tow/ Do/ He] listened to games on the radio. [On/ Go/ He] played baseball too. He was the [round/ first/ watch] baseman. His team was called the Sharks. [Want/ They/ Time] won most of their games. Now [the/ not/ are] games were over. Tim no longer [chanced/ played/ garage] on the team. He would have [to/ is/ on] wait a whole year before it [would/ steam/ smell] be time to play ball for [into/ fit/ the] Sharks.

Tim's favorite baseball team is [was/ how/ the] Sounds. They are a real ball [club/ grade/ yard]. Tim wants to play for the Sounds [when/ done/ seen] he grows up. Tim goes to [dog/ put/ the] Sounds games every time they are [in/ the/ got] Nashville. Tim goes with his granddad.

[Know/ Last/ Over] Friday the Sounds were in town. Tim [forest/ called/ dinner] his granddad. He asked him if [he/ to/ did] wanted to go to the game. [His/ Dog/ Not] granddad said yes. His granddad picked [got/ him/ bun] up at six o'clock. He wanted [to/ am/ is] be on time to get good [seats/ first/ doing].

When they got to the game, Tim [the/ and/ too] his granddad got the best seats [they/ seen/ have] had ever had. They sat right [sudden/ screen/ behind] first base. They were in the [pushed/ second/ walked] row. Before the game started, they [behind/ played/ bought] something to eat. They bought hot [dogs/ feet/ sang] and sodas. They also bought popcorn [the/ and/ soon] peanuts.

When the game was about [to/ in/ he] start, Tim and his granddad heard [sat/the/ for] organ begin to play. The organ [before/ played/ wrote] very loudly.

Sometimes the organ played [funny/ came/ waved] songs. But now the organ played [did/ tack/ the] Star Spangled Banner. All the people [stood/ apple/ noise] and sang. Then the players ran [feed/ sang/ onto] the field. Next someone call [out/ cat/ sit] the names of the players. Tim [remember/ struck/ already] knew the players names because he [won/ into/ had] been to many games before.

Tim [already/ watched/ inside] the game closely. In the eighth [across/ inning/ nearby], the game was tied. Both sides [the/ fit/ had] four runs. The Sounds were [an/ it/ up] to bat. Tim cheered for them. [The/ Him/ Son] catcher hit a homerun. This put [one/ the/ sun] Sounds ahead. Then the other team [sang/ bake/ came] up to bat. The other team [was/ the/ dog] called the Mud Hens. The first [seated/ batter/ hungry] struck out. Tim cheered. The second [winter/ batter/ inside] struck out. Tim cheered again. The [third/ found/ cream] batter hit the ball. The ball [some/ find/ went] to first base. The first baseman [did/ the/ bat] not catch it. The ball went [right/ books/ smell] to Tim. He stuck up his [color/ glove/ sorry] and caught it. All the people [cheered/ peanuts/ country] for Tim. The pitcher threw the [some/ crow/ ball] to the batter again. He struck [got/ out/ job]. The pitcher came over to Tim [did/ and/ sat] wrote his name on the ball Tim [had/ hot/ win] caught. Tim thought this was the [last/ save/ best] game he had ever been to.
