

What I Want

by Jada Smith

I want to be famous.

Not only for the glory and adoration,
But for the guarantee that my voice will be heard.
That millions of people will care about what I say.
So I can make as big of a difference as I desire.

I want to be able to do something with my life
And be the reason why others do the same.

I don't care about the flashing lights and publicity,
I don't care if I'm seen or not.

I just want to make a difference
And not be known as no one.

I want to be famous.

But, more importantly, I want to serve as someone else's voice
Just in case they don't want to be seen, too.
