Classroom happenings:

We had our first fire drill on Friday, September 30th . Your children did a great job! They stopped what they were doing and lined up by the door. They quietly followed their teacher out of building.

During story time we have been reading books about colors. Some of the titles are: Brown Bear, Brown Bear What Do You See? , A Color of My Own, Pete The Cat: I Love My White Shoes, Little Blue and Little Yellow and White Rabbit's Color Book. Two of those titles are by Leo Lionni. We talked about the books he has authored and made little books at our writing center. Several students were inspired and created books of their own!

At Home Connection:

Play an I Spy color game with your child. Say, " I spy something red" and see if your child can find what you see that is red.
